A meeting was held on 2nd March in the Rose and Crown at 7.00pm. The Chair attended the meeting. It was decide to go for a medallion with purple ribbon. To cover everyone a total of 170 will be ordered.

386.10 A parishioner asked that the Council would consider backing the 20s plenty campaign as cars are speeding down Highfield Lane and through the village and it is becoming a safety concern. The person also called for more information from the PC to be included in the newsletter including the forth coming elections.

386.11 Drains and flooding

It was reported that garages were flooded from water gushing down the Howl. As this is an ongoing situation because of warmer winters and more wet weather, solutions need looking at eg concrete humps on driveways or some sort of flood defence like sandbags. Also the main sewerage pipe has a possible blockage and Yorkshire water will investigate
