413 Items for discussion and to be added to the agenda for the next meeting

413.1 Highways contacted the Clerk to request the 20's plenty signs be removed as this was causing confusion to motorists.

413.2 A parishioner commented on the statement in the newsletter re speeding.

She commented that speeding was still an issue especially coming from Beadlam and really would like the Council to consider 20s plenty.

A Cllr commented that he thought that 20s plenty wouldn't be allowed on the main road- he said it would have to come from the government

The Council discussed this and understands the problem and instructed the Clerk to fill in a speed concern form to request a survey and data logger to be deployed to gather vehicle speeds

413.3 Bi annual Budget report to be discussed
